

Quick Facts About USA Leadership Corps (USALC)

Operational Since: June 2005
 Number of Full-Time Employees: 1 (Maxwell Roper, Founder)
 Website: www.usaLeadershipCorps.org
 National Headquarters: Chicago, IL

Group Mission

Help emerging corporate, nonprofit, and small business leaders achieve key career and financial goals by facilitating mutually beneficial, volunteer-driven three-month strategy consulting projects.

USALC Group Partner Profiles

	Corporate Consultant Partner	Nonprofit / Small Biz Partner
Years of Experience	6	20
Career Background	Business & Technology	Education & Human Services
Current Annual Income	$80 K (Pre MBA)	$10 K
Desired 3-Year Annual Income	$110 K (Post MBA)	$50 K
Non-Financial Goals	Improve MBA application results by demonstrating great communication, consulting, and strategy skill. Learn the challenges of social entrepreneurship.	Achieve vision of developing a financially sustainable organization that betters society. Become more business-savvy, strategic, and structured regarding the organization's growth and future success.

Corporate Partner Admission Statistics

First Round Admission Rate: 33% of leaders who complete 100-page online training x
 Second Round Admission Rate: 33% of remaining leaders who pass oral examination
 =
Total Program Admission Rate: 10%

Program Success

USALC has facilitated approximately 200 consulting projects throughout the country - in cities including Chicago, Washington D.C, San Francisco, Houston, and Detroit.

Positive Evaluation Success Rate: 93%
 (Success is when a participating corporate, small business, or nonprofit partner rates his/her program experience a '7' or greater on a 10-point scale.)

USALC Corporate Partners who gain admission into a Top 20 MBA Program: 95%

How USALC is Funded

Consultants, Nonprofits, and Small Businesses each contribute a nominal program administration fee to participate in USALC.